The screenshot shows the website nyidanmark.dk/en-us/coming_to_dk/fee/fee.htm. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with categories like 'Au pairs', 'Interns', 'Working Holiday', 'Family Reunification', 'Asylum', 'Humanitarian Residence Permit', 'Religious workers', 'Permanent residence permit', and 'Fee'. The 'Fee' category is expanded, showing sub-items: 'Payment', 'About fees', 'Residence cards with biometric features', 'If you leave Denmark', 'EU and Nordic citizens', 'The Association Agreement with Turkey', 'The Faroe Islands', 'Greenland', 'Appeals', 'Verification of personal information', and 'Danish nationality'. The main content area is titled 'Work, studies, au pair, interns, accompanying family member of a person working or studying in Denmark.' It explains that a fee is required for extensions or appeals. It lists 'Case types which do not warrant a fee' and provides instructions on how to 'Create case order ID' and 'About fees'. A 'Payment' section includes a link for those who have already created a case order ID. The footer identifies the site as 'The Danish Immigration Service | The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration | Technical support'.

The screenshot shows the website new to denmark.dk. The header includes the site name and navigation links like 'Contact', 'Authorities', 'About newtodenmark.dk', 'Press room', and 'Sitemap'. A search bar is present. The main navigation bar includes 'News', 'Forms', 'Publications', 'FAQ', 'Legislation', 'Statistics', and 'My Page'. The left sidebar has a menu with categories like 'Coming to Denmark', 'Visa (short term)', 'Work', 'PhD', 'Studies', 'Au pairs', 'Interns', 'Working Holiday', 'Family Reunification', 'Asylum', 'Humanitarian Residence Permit', 'Religious workers', 'Permanent residence permit', 'Fee', 'Residence cards with biometric features', 'If you leave Denmark', 'EU and Nordic citizens', 'The Association Agreement with Turkey', 'The Faroe Islands', 'Greenland', 'Appeals', 'Verification of personal information', 'Danish nationality', and 'misuse'. The 'Fee' category is expanded. The main content area is titled 'How to proceed' and shows a progress bar with steps: 'How to proceed', 'Case type', 'Information about you', 'Case order ID', and 'Payment'. The 'How to proceed' step is active. It lists four steps: 1. Choose case type, 2. Type information about you or the applicant, 3. Print or e-mail receipt for the case order ID, and 4. Choose whether to go directly to payment or terminate the guide. A 'Note' states that certain applicants are not required to create a case order ID. A 'Next' link is provided at the end of the text.
